ANNOUNCING THE NEW RX MEAL PRODUCT LINE!

Supplement Rx is proud to announce the release of the new Rx Meal product line. Since the Supplement Rx program encourages consumption of three small, balanced healthy meals and three healthy snacks a day, Rx Meal was invented to help people on-the-go get all their nutrition in perfect, compact meals. With a balanced ratio of carbohydrates, proteins, and fats, Rx Meal is available in two forms: a meal replacement shake or a meal replacement bar. Both are lean on calories, but heavy on nutrients.

The Rx Meal shake comes in 2.8lb containers in powder form that mixes easily with milk or water to create a great-tasting shake available in two delicious flavors: Chocolate Milkshake or Vanilla Ice Cream. Each shake contains 22 grams of protein and less than 170 calories!

The Rx Meal bar is a 45 gram bar that comes pre-packaged in boxes of 12. This low calorie, complete meal replacement bar contains 12 grams of protein, and comes in two mouthwatering flavors: Triple Chocolate Fudge or Peanut Butter Cup. Made with Hershey's™ chocolate and Reese's™ Peanut Butter, whoever said that eating healthy can't taste great?

The Rx Meal shake will be available for purchase starting Thursday, April 29, 2010. The Rx Meal bar will be available for purchase the last week of May 2010.
